

Not your typical rehearsal dinner. How about a clam bake!

Hearty dinner salad

An open pit clam bake, with cheese and garlic bread for dipping

Beef carving station – grilled, marinated loins of beef, chef carved and served with tarragon horseradish sauce, chipotle aioli, and tomato chutney.

An abundance of Red Stripe Beer

When our son was to marry and our responsibility was to host the “rehearsal dinner”, Gayle and I called Steve to create something special and memorable. The Caribbean clam boil, complete with Red Stripe beer and reggae music, all on the Country Club patio, was truly a hit, as much for the parents and relatives as for our kid’s young friends. Thanks again, Steve.
